ORDER Re: Relief from Expert Report Scheduling Order

Pending is Defendants' Motion for Partial Relief from the Schedule for Expert Reports (Doc. No. 925).

The non-Wyeth pharmaceutical manufacturer Defendants assert that they should be relieved from the November 30, 2005 Order¹ that establishes dates for designation of generic experts for the July 2006 bellwether case. Because not all potential bellwether cases involve all Defendants, the non-Wyeth pharmaceutical manufacturer Defendants contend that they should be excused from the deadline until the first two bellwether trials are selected.

Because this seems entirely reasonable, the motion is GRANTED. After the first two bellwether trials are selected, an expert report scheduling order will be issued for the remaining Defendants. These dates will most likely be addressed at the December 16, 2005 Status Conference.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 7th day of December, 2005 (Pearl Harbor Day).
